JUDICIAL SERVICE COMMISSION

MEDIA ANNOUNCEMENT

JUDICIAL VACANCIES

Erratum

On Tuesday, 5 May 2026, the Judicial Service Commission (JSC) published a Notice in the media calling for nominations of interested persons to fill in vacancies in various superior courts. The Notice omitted to advise that for the one vacancy of a non-judge member advertised in the Electoral Court, candidates for this position should be South African citizens who are in the legal profession. In addition, the two advertised Land Court vacancies, candidates for these positions must be persons who, by reason of their training and experience, have expertise in the field of land rights matters.

The JSC hereby advises that the Notice is accordingly amended to reflect these additions. All nominations must reach the Secretariat of the JSC by no later than Friday, 5 June 2026.

The Judicial Service Commission (JSC) invites nominations of candidates to fill vacancies of Judges in the following Courts:

1. Supreme Court of Appeal

Three vacancies

2. Labour Court and Labour Appeal Court

One vacancy (Deputy Judge President)

Two vacancies (Labour Appeal Court)

One vacancy (Labour Court, Johannesburg)

One vacancy (Labour Court, Durban)

3. Competition Appeal Court

Two vacancies

4. Electoral Court

One vacancy (Non-judge member)

Candidates for this vacancy should be South African citizens who are in the legal profession.

5. Land Court

Two vacancies. Candidates for this position must be persons who, by reason of their training and experience, have expertise in the field of land rights matters.

6. Western Cape Division of the High Court

Three vacancies

7. Eastern Cape Division of the High Court

One vacancy (Deputy Judge President)

8. Gauteng Division of the High Court

Four vacancies

9. KwaZulu-Natal Division of the High Court

One vacancy

10. Northern Cape Division of the High Court

One vacancy

Nominations must be accompanied by the candidate's signed written consent, detailed curriculum vitae disclosing the candidate's formal qualifications for appointment, the standard questionnaire completed and signed by the candidate, as well as copies of at least three written judgments by the candidate.

Where the candidate seeks an appointment to the Supreme Court of Appeal, the candidate should submit at least one judgment that was penned by him or her alone.

The updated standard questionnaires to be completed by all nominees are available on the South African Judiciary website: <https://tinyurl.com/yckxbz9v>, alternatively on the Constitutional Court website: www.concourt.org.za.

In order to comply with the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (POPI Act), candidates need not provide their residential address, identity number and cellphone number in their questionnaire and curriculum vitae. Candidates are, however, requested to fill in annexure “A” attached to the questionnaire for office use only.

Candidates must also submit the standardised, current “clearance certificate” which the candidate is required to obtain from his / her professional body regarding the candidate’s professional status within that body, his or her suitability for appointment to the Bench and the nature of any disciplinary proceedings completed or pending in respect of the relevant candidate. For advocates and attorneys, the certificate must be obtained from the Legal Practice Council.

Nominations must be arranged in the following order:

1. Signed nomination letter;
2. Signed consent letter;
3. Signed updated questionnaire for Judges – to be completed by a candidate who has already been appointed as a permanent judge;
4. Signed updated questionnaire for Non-Judges – to be completed by a candidate who has not yet been appointed as a permanent judge to any court;
5. Curriculum vitae;
6. Certificate of good standing from the Legal Practice Council or Magistrates Commission, where applicable; and
7. At least three written judgments (and in the case of an application for appointment to the SCA, at least one penned by the candidate alone).

Candidates nominated for more than one Court must submit a separate nomination letter in respect of each court.

The Secretariat wishes to emphasize the following:

1. Interviews with short-listed candidates will be conducted in public i.e. members of the public and the media are welcome to attend.
2. It is incumbent on persons or bodies nominating candidates to motivate their nominations by referring the JSC to the candidate’s qualifications and general fitness for appointment. In order to comply with the POPI

Act, persons or bodies need not provide their residential address, identity number and cellphone number on the nomination letters.

3. Nominations must be addressed to and reach the Secretariat of the JSC by no later than Friday, 5 June 2026.

Interviews will take place during the week of 5 – 16 October 2026 in Gauteng. Candidates who wish to email their nominations are encouraged to do so and need not hand deliver hard copies. Candidates are encouraged to make a follow-up with the Secretariat of the JSC should they not receive confirmation of receipt by 9 June 2026 12:00 pm. Candidates who wish to hand deliver their nominations may do so either at the Office of the Chief Justice, based at 188, 14th Road, Noordwyk, Midrand or alternatively at the Constitutional Court.
